

Ramadan Journal

A Ramadan journal is more than just pages; it's your personal space to grow, reflect, and connect deeply with Allah. Use it to track progress, record duas, and cherish the blessings of this sacred month.

Allah says:

"So remember Me; I will remember you. And be grateful to Me and do not deny Me." (Surah Al-Baqarah, 2:152)

Your journal can remind you how far you've come and inspire future growth.

The Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said:

"The most beloved deeds to Allah are those that are consistent, even if they are small." (Sahih al-Bukhari)

Start small, be sincere, and let each word reflect your journey of faith and striving for Allah's pleasure.

"Indeed, Allah does not let the reward of the doers of good be lost." (Surah Yusuf, 12:90)

May this journal inspire you and bring barakah to every Ramadan ahead.

"Whoever fasts during the month of Ramadan with faith and seeking reward from Allah will have his past sins forgiven."

(Sahih Bukhari and Sahih Muslim)

Ramadan helps us grow spiritually, get closer to Allah, and practice self-discipline by fasting. It teaches us to feel for those who are less fortunate, be thankful for what we have, and reflect on our actions. It's a time to ask for forgiveness, improve ourselves, and bond with others in the community. Ramadan is all about purifying our hearts, worshiping more, and seeking Allah's mercy.

Blessings of Laylatul Qadr Through Hadith

A'isha RA reported that the Messenger of Allah, may Allah bless him and grant him peace, said, "Look for the Night of Power during the odd nights of the last ten days of Ramadan."
[al-Bukhari].

Abu Bakra said he heard God's messenger say, "Seek it (meaning lailat al-qadr), on the twenty-first, twenty-third, twenty-fifth, twenty-seventh, or on the last night."

Narrated Abu Huraira RA Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) said, "Whoever establishes the prayers on the night of Qadr out of sincere faith and hoping to attain Allah's rewards (not to show off) then all his past sins will be forgiven."

A'ishah RA reported When the last ten nights (of Ramadan) would begin, the Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) would keep awake at night (for prayer and devotion), awaken his family and prepare himself to be more diligent in worship.
(Al-Bukhari and Muslim)

A'ishah RA also reported The Messenger of Allah (peace and blessings be upon him) used to strive more in worship during Ramadan than he strove in any other time of the year; and he would devote himself more (in the worship of Allah) in the last ten nights of Ramadan than he strove in earlier part of the month. (Muslim)
